If there’s one thing that surprised me in New York is the rise of the brunch lifestyle. And honestly, I’m just grateful. Breakfast/lunch entrees, bottomless drinks, good music and can I pass out drunk in bed before 9:00? It’s honestly the perfect balance of adults while it’s irresponsible. And that’s what I’m here for. So I compiled a list of 10 of my favorite brunch spots in New York. Now personally, my favorite kind of brunches have the music exploding, drinks flowing and forgetting any of my worries while appearing with my team. Basically what I’m trying to say is, if you like a boring and quiet brunch it won’t have you twerking for the latest drake hits... this post is not for you. But if that’s what you’re looking for, as always I have you! Let’s get started: PS 450 450 Park Ave S – New York, NY PS 450 is not the cheapest brunch spot on the list. But sometimes you have to pay for the price of fitness. Brunch costs $50 before the tax and taxes included (which will probably take about $70 in total), but I mean... they legitimate ly give you the champagne bottles. That’s the kind of energy I’m in. The DJ hip hop, RnB, reggae & Top 40s. For me it is a kind of Forest (see below) of the city, but less ratchet. Basically to sum up your experience, you’ll definitely be leaving the PS 450 happy & turnt. Poco 33 Avenida B - Novo Novo NY Poco is a brunch point gem located in LES, which you’ll definitely need to make reservations for! The location itself is small compared to the other brunch places on my list, but it’s as lively as the rest, you’ll actually hear the music that lasts out there! With brunch costing about $35 plus taxes & tip, you get unlimited mimosas, sangrias and your entry of choice. Just make sure you bring money, because your bottomless brunch is just money. Beauty & Essex 146 Essex Street – New York, NY Beauty & Essex is what I would consider to be one of the most popular brunch spots on this list. I don’t think there’s anyone in New York who hasn’t seen this place in insta’s feed! You go into a speakeasy entry type and then inside you find a glamorous interior! That gives you total vibrations of I think I’m too broke to be here. So if you are looking to show up while looking stylish af, this is the place for you! Now the biggest beauty & Essex downside is that it doesn’t have a bottomless brunch option, so don’t expect a server to be bringing unlimited drinks back to back, unfortunately it doesn’t work that way here. You get a glass of champagne and then you have to order additional drinks... And yes, you guessed it, it’s going to cost you a nice penny. The minimum cost at this brunch will cost $70! The professional, is lit af – you will never leave here without having fun. Remember it’s going to cost you! Agave 140 7th Avenue S - New York, NY Let me warn you all now that it’s crowded here! Because? Because Agave is so good. Back to the energy of bottomless brunch with this venue, you get – an entry + two hours of unlimited mimosas, margaritas, frozen margaritas & wine for about $35/45 (depending on your group# and not including tax + tip). The drinks are amazing, now I don’t want to brag... not that this should be something to brag about, but I know drinks and at Agave they’re ALWAYS on point. The food is also pump but parts are a little smaller than I’m used to, I mean, I still get full, but something I definitely noticed. The song ranges from top 40 hits, Hip Hop, RnB & if you love singing to 90’s or 00’s throwback that’ll happen here! Agave is a must! Woodland 242 Flatbush Avenue - Brooklyn, NY If you’re from Brooklyn, you know Woodland. It has become the basic restaurant of our neighborhood for a lighted brunch and turnstile. Is customer service the best? No. Are you super full of ridiculous waiting time? Yes. Are we still going anyway? Absolutely. When it comes to Woodland, you know it’s going to be a party. So yes, as much as most of us ome/ode – it would be non-brooklyn of me not to include it. Piquant 259 Flatbush Avenue – Brooklyn, NY Out of all places on my Piquant list may just be the quietest. It’s the perfect place for a first date brunch or for those brunches where you and team need to update themselves seriously (and don’t want to shout about the music). Trust me the vibrations there are on point. Music is good, food is AMAZING and it’s only $25 for entry mimosas/bottomless sangria. Accessible is an understatement. Also, if you end up wanting to show up a little more you can go to Woodland across the street! Sometimes they just take money – so make sure you have some in you! Sons Of Essex 133 Essex Street – New York, NY Another party brunch at LES! Sons Of Essex is a starting point (and I’m sorry this is another off ball spot). Known for its hip hop brunches, if you know all the juicy lyrics of the street... You’re going to love it here. A bottomless brunch here will cost about $65 but I think stopping by for the experience at least once is worth it. Negril Village 70 West 3rd Street - New York, NY Where is my Caribbean companion? Negril Village is straight to the JA vibes, on the brunch menu you can find Ackee and Saltfish, Oxtail, Jerk Chicken and the list goes on! During the weekend brunch is usually super packed with dj BLASTING the music, if your intention is to have a conversation, trust me this is not the place for that. But you can definitely play out and have fun listening to reggae/Caribbean songs. For unlimited mimosas you have to pay 15 more with your meal and the weekend brunch works from 12 to 15:30 hours! Angel Of Harlem 2272 Fredrick Douglass Boulevard- New York, NY Yes yall! It’s time for me to show some love in town because we can’t sleep at harlem brunches! Let me tell you if I could convince you with two words why you should make breakfast at the Angel of Harlem... Punch rum. Your rum punch is amazing and, most importantly, part of your bottomless option that also includes mimosas, white sangria & red sangria too! The atmosphere is cool and the DJ here is also one of the best parts of Angel of Harlem! It gets packed as you would expect, so try to make reservations beforehand! My food recommendation? The Chicken & Waffles are EVERYTHING! Ricardo Steak House 2145 2nd Avenue – New York, NY I LOVE Ricardo Steak House, so much so that I really celebrated my birthday twice here! If your favorite meal to order at brunch is steak and eggs you will get obsessed with theirs. Although I come here more often for dinners, I can’t sleep at brunches here – they’re just as good! The DJ here is always bursting. Always. And if you’re celebrating a birthday, you’ll probably get sparks when the servers sing Happy Birthday to you, also known as if you’re extra af like me and like these things. The bottomless option serves mimosas and bellinis, which come in different flavors for 2 hours, which is additional $25 with your entry. The vibe in this place is very modern, brick interior wall, a Biggie painting, a MLK painting anyone who really is about culture would love it here. And that’s a package! Are you going to be banging at one of those brunch spots soon? If so, let me know! Drop a comment, me a message, mark me on social and let me know how was your experience! Was! Was!
